Dear Anna

I received your letter Saturday about noon containing the certificate but they could not examine me that afternoon.
I have just got out of the examination room this moment it is now 5 minutes of eleven and the mail starts at eleven. So I can not give you the particulars it is needless to say I got in and passed a glorious examination. I will write a long letter to morrow.

Yours Truly
J E Weston

Send my furniture as quick as possible. Direct it to the Post Office if you have not sent it
